COUNCIL HAS QUIET SESSION LAST MONDAY

A very quiet and short session of the town council was held at its regular meeting last Monday evening. In the absence of Mayor Bott, Acting Mayor Lavelle occupied the chair. The following councillors were present: Messrs. Broughton, Kane, Watts, Learmonth.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes, a communication was read from Constable Evetett asking for an increase in salary. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The town solicitor was instructed to write the Royal bank stating that if taxes due to the town were not paid on or before September 18th action would be taken. The taxes referred to in this case were in connection with the Quebec bank which institution the Royal has taken over recently.

As the town now has considerable old pipe on hand the town foreman was instructed to dispose of same at the rate of 3 cents a pound.

The was some discussion on other matters but no action was taken and the council adjourned.

Ontario Farmers - Against Price Fixing

Dissatisfaction with the wheat prices fixed by the national wheat board recently was expressed at the initial session of the board by representatives of the United Farmers of Ontario, who claimed that Ontario farmers had not been given a fair deal.

M. W. Doherty, one of the representatives of the organized farmers, holds that in the opinion of a great many the board was not justified in making any difference in prices this year. The present prices, he said, should be made f. o. b. Toronto, or if changed, should be made the same as last year.

Referring to the live stock industry, Mr. Doherty spoke of the fear of the farmers that there would be a shortage of wheat oeal. Livestock men, he said, had been unable to get sufficient bran and middlings to meet the requirements in the past, and considered it probable that an undue proportion of wheat offal would still be taken out of the province.

Canada and U.S. To Protect Salmon

Official notification has been received by the naval department of the signing at Washington of a treaty between Canada and the United States for the regulation of the sockeye fisheries of the Fraser river, in British Columbia. The treaty, which follows recommendations made in addition by the International fisheries conference which investigated the matter last year, was signed by Douglas Hazen and Mr. Lid sey, officer in charge of the British embassy at Washington, for Great Britain, and by Robert Lansing, secretary of state for the United States.

It is understood that the treaty provides for the appointment of a commission, to be assisted by two experts, which will investigate the sockeye hatchery operations on the Fraser river. It will also provide in all probability for an examination under the commission by competent engineers of the sides of the Fraser river at Hell's Gate and at the salmon are probable, with a view to averting th's danger.

It is understood also that provision will be made for the establishment of new hatcheries.

Retailers Want Factory Act Changed

Calgary retailers will petition the provincial government to remove their business from control by government under the Factory Act. What the retailers want is a seperate act to govern all retail business in the province, bring about uniformity in regulations governing retail trade.

At present there is a diversity of opinion applying to retail business either by provincial act or municipal bylaw, with the result that much confusion exists and discrimination is shown. If regulations governing this class of business were made uniform for the whole province much of the existing trouble would cease.

C.N.R. Grading Outfit Moves Closer to Town

Work in connection with the grading on the C. N. R. branch into Redcliff has progressed favorably during the summer. North of the river the grading has been completed and the laying of steel is now in progress. When the steel is down, material for the bridge over the river will be brought in over the company's own line and it is expected that this work be under way this fall and winter.

Mr. Sandgren's grading outfit which has been working twenty-five or thirty miles north of here, is moving down to within sight of the town this week. When the camp is established the grading from the town north to link up with the grade already completed will be completed. For the present it is the intention, we understand, to use the C. P. R. for traffic east and west from this point, but it is the intention to complete the grading south of the C. P. R. through town to make connections with the several industries.

Canada Has Claim For Her Indemnity

The statement attributed to Premier Massey that New Zealand expects to receive 10,000,000 pounds indemnity from Germany, is subject of comment among members, and leading likelihood of questions in the house as to what Canada's share is likely to be. Canada's statement of claims has already been filed, but it is emphasized that will be received can not be estimated till all claims have been filed, and the ability of Germans to pay has been determined. Priority has also been given to certain claims namely:

(a) Cost of armies of occupation during armistice and its extension.

(b) Cost of any armies of occupation after the coming into force of the peace treaty.

(c) Cost of reparation arising out of the peace treaty or any treaties or conventions supplementary thereto.

Canada has a minor claim, in addition to its general claims, under the first priority clause. This is for the cost of Canadian forces on the Rhine during the period of the armistice.

Canada Leads In Care of Soldiers

Canada continues to lead in the important work of the industrial training of disabled members of the forces. Today there are in Canada 11,616 disabled men under going industrial training under the direction of the vocational branch of the department of Soldiers Civil re-establishment, the number of disabled men in training in the United States is 6,677. In each instance the figures have been obtained from official sources. There are at present in Canada 7,049 disabled men receiving industrial re-training in schools conducted by the vocational branch of the department of Soldiers Civil Re-establishment and in addition 4,567 men have been placed in various shops and plants throughout Canada. To date in Canada 6,073 ex-members of the forces have graduated from these courses.

The Vatican Now Leans to Democracy

Politically the Vatican has joined hands with democracies and cast its lot with new world-wide liberal movement. This was brought out in a papal letter addressed to Cardinal Logue and made public in connection with participation of French Catholics in the coming parliamentary elections. The Vatican will hereafter accept democracy as the only source of political power, and will work to build up and permanently establish democratic governments. The Vatican program contains four definite planks for the establishment of social peace. They comprise:

Co-operation of all classes.

Coalition of all classes against Bolshevism.

Acceptance of democracy.

Education of the proletariat.

JAPAN WILL KEEP TROOPS IN SIBERIA.

Japan is not planning to withdraw troops from Siberia, according to an official statement issued at the war office.

"Far from considering the withdrawal of troops from Siberia," the statement says, "conditions there may necessitate the sending of re-inforcements to that country."

LOCAL G.W.V.A. GET BUSY RE COMMISSION

Pass Strong Resolution and Wire Premier Borden and Hon. A. L. Sifton Requesting Re-Consideration of Dominion Executive Request for Commission.

At a meeting of the Redcliff branch of the G. W. V. A. held last evening to discuss the action of the Dominion government in refusing to grant the request of the delegates for a commission to be appointed to investigate the re-establishment problems of the returned soldier, the president, R. S. Hogue, read several telegrams from the provincial and dominion executives asking for the co-operation of all locals in an endeavor to get the government to reconsider their actions in the matter. After much discussion in which the members were unanimous it was decided to adopt the resolution as passed at a meeting of the Calgary G. W. V. A. last Sunday. The following is a copy of the resolution referred to:

"Whereas, the returned army of Canada have formed themselves into an association for the protection of the widows and fatherless children resulting from the war, and for the recognition and equivalent compensation for their disabled comrades; and the reparation to civilians life with the least possible disadvantage to those who have sacrificed their all that this country may be free and

"Whereas, this association has always conducted its deliberations on loyal lines, preferring to attain their ends by legitimate and constitutional methods; and have recently at a national convention of their duly appointed delegates representing a returned army of 100,000 men, passed a resolution unanimously urging upon the government of Canada that a repatriation bonus is sorely needed as a solution to the disadvantages under which our returned comrades are labouring and asking our government to appoint a committee of three to meet a committee of three representing the veterans, to decide upon the means and methods of the payment of such a bonus; and

"Whereas, every leading representative body of men and women in our province, and numerous women's leagues have endorsed the necessity of such a bonus; and

"Whereas, we as a loyal and legitimate body have attempted to get recognition of the needs of our comrades through sane and constitutional methods; it has now been thrown back in our faces with a flat refusal by the prime minister to appoint a committee to meet our committee; thereby inciting our members to acts of disloyalty and deliberately disregarding the wishes of our army and our people; and

"Whereas, it is deeply deplored by this association that the wishes of our army who were sufficiently responsible to be entrusted with the fate of this country when in need should be so ruthlessly regarded; and it is our opinion that such an action is not British, is not fair nor can such treatment endure, as it is absolutely incompatible with that freedom for which our army fought and which we are told we have won now

"Therefore be it resolved that such a refusal on the part of the prime minister indicates that the government's plan in labor troubles for arbitration is only a hypocritical mockery, we having requested arbitration and they having refused it. That the premier has broken faith with his army and people in so disregarding their wishes; and

"This the Redcliff branch of the Redcliff War Veterans Association in general meeting assembled this day of September, 1919, earnestly call upon every loyal body who supported our bonus resolution to join together with every returned soldier throughout this country to bring pressure upon the government to resign so that a government may be formed that represents the wishes of the people may be elected with representation thereon of the returned army in proportion to its numbers."

After the unanimous adoption of the above resolution further discussion took place and the secretary was instructed to send the following telegram to Hon. A. L. Sifton, federal member for this constituency:

"The Redcliff branch G. W. V. A. do earnestly request that you give your strongest support and use your influence to have government appoint commission regarding re-establishment as requested by our Dominion executive."

The following answer to this message was received from Mr. Sifton:

"Wire received and am giving same careful consideration."

A second telegram was sent to Mr. Sifton and is as follows:

"At a general meeting of the Redcliff branch of the G. W. V. A. it was instructed to wire you asking for a definite statement as to your attitude in regard to the request of the Dominion executive G. W. V. A. regarding soldiers re-establishment commission. Public meeting being held Sunday next. Please favor us with your reply before that date. Reply at our expense."

The following telegram was also sent to Premier Borden:

"At a general meeting tonight members of Redcliff G. W. V. A. are unanimous in respectfully requesting you to consider your decision regarding soldiers re-establishment commission."

At this meeting it was also decided to call a public meeting of all the citizens of the town, as is being done in other centres, for the purpose of discussing the situation and getting an expression of public opinion. Further particulars of this meeting may be found in another column of this issue.

Trade Congress is Behind Miners' Case

By an overwhelming vote the trades union congress now meeting in Glasgow passed a resolution favoring the nationalization of the coal mines. The resolution pledged insistence by the body that the government adopt the majority report of the coal commission presented last June known as the Sankey report.

This report provides for the state ownership of the mines and for joint control of their operation, in which the miners would have an effective voice. The resolut on passed calling for acceptance of the report by the government adds:

"In the event of the government still refusing, a special congress shall be convened to decide what form of action shall be taken to compel the government to accept."

German Circulars Coming to Redcliff

Last week we [illegible] in the old country papers that German manufacturers were already embarking on an extensive advertising propaganda throughout the British Isles. These advertisements contained a list of German made goods which were now ready for shipment to all parts of the world and the prices quoted were far below the usual prices for similar goods manufactured within the empire.

This week we have further evidence that this propaganda is being carried to all parts of the world, and already German circulars are finding their way into Redcliff. The Imperial bank here is in receipt of a circular from the Berliner Borsen-Courier, soliciting subscriptions to that financial journal. The opening paragraph of the circular is so interesting that we reprint it. It is as follows:

"As business connections between England and Germany are about to be taken up again, one may hope to re-establish also the old friendly relations. Therefore it is necessary for all merchants, for all those interested in the stock and money market, for all bankers to possess a source of rich and reliable information, regarding Germany's trade and industries.

"The chief aim of the "Berliner Borsen-Courier" has always consisted in promoting the business relations of these two countries.

"You must read the 'Berliner Borsen-Courier' if you want to be furnished with the best information as to the state of the German Commonwealth, her trade, industry and economic administration.

Prince Invests in War Savings Stamps

Not the least amongst the many famous acts performed by the Prince of Wales during his brief stay in Ottawa was to invest in a complete purchase of War Savings Stamps. His Royal Highness was delighted to find that in Canada, war savings stamps are on sale continuously, the same as in England. It was his intention to call at the post office and make his purchase of the stamps in the regular manner, during his stroll around Ottawa incognito, but pressure of other engagements prevented this being done. The stamps were then forwarded to him at government house and the sale, duly made, in person, by the secretary of the National War Savings Committee. The Prince was quite willing that his investment should be made known and kindly sent the following letter, with perm ssion to publish it, to Sir Herbert B. Ames, chairman of the National War Savings Committee:

Government House,
Ottawa, September 1st, 1919.

Dear Sir Herbert—I am pleased to be the holder of a Canadian War Savings Certificate.

I am delighted to find that in Canada you have War Savings Stamps on sale, similar to those we have in England.

I wish the War Savings campaign every success. I am,

Yours sincerely,
(Signed) EDWARD P.

Ontario's Premier Favors Gratuity

According to latest reports Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario, is in sympathy with the movement for the soldiers' gratuity. In a public speech recently he said:

"Speaking for Ontario, home of almost half of our army, and the province from which the Dominion derives nearly half of the public revenue, I feel confident that our people are prepared to bear will ngly their share of any additional grant the circumstances may demand and the financial position of the country."

Must Employ Returned Soldiers in N.S. Wales

The government of New South Wales has introduced a bill which has passed at first reading in the legislature compelling employers to reinstate employees who joined the forces, at their pre war or equally good positions and makes it incumbent upon all employees upon pain of heavy penalty to employ returned soldiers before engaging other workers.

The evacuation of Archagel by the British expeditionary forces is in progress, it was officially announced in London Monday.

LOCAL BRANCH G. W. V. A. NOTES

Public Meeting Called for Next Sunday in Amuse-U Theatre at Three O'clock to Discuss Action of Government in Refusing Commission.

As a result of the refusal of the government to consider the request of the Dominion executive of the G. W. V. A. for a commission to enquire into the problem of re-establishing returned soldiers, a general meeting of the local branch was held in the club rooms on Wednesday evening and it was decided to call a public meeting for Sunday afternoon next at the Amuse-U theatre to place before the citizens of Redcliff our side of the question and to get an expression of public opinion.

Mass meetings for this purpose are being held on this day at all the centres throughout the Dominion and we are anxious for all those interested to turn out and lend their support to what we consider a reasonable request.

It might be well to state that the returned soldiers of Canada simply asks for a commission to investigate throughly one of the biggest and most serious problems that this country will have to face during the period of reconstruction.

The regular monthly meeting of the G. W. V. A. will be held on Sunday, the 14th inst in the club rooms at 2 o'clock p. m. All members are particularly requested to be present.

All veterans are asked to keep in mind the visit of the Prince of Wales to Medicine Hat on October 3rd. Veterans are expected to appear in uniform. Those who have not a full equipment should communicate at once with C.S.M. Scott, secretary.

Keep in mind the tea and sale of work in the club rooms on Wednesday next, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary. On this occasion a nice assortment of home made cooking and candy and fancy work will be offered for sale. Tea will be served during the afternoon, for which there will be a charge of 20c. Admission free. All invited.

Finances of Country Preclude Gratuity

The correspondence between Sir Robert Borden and the G. W. V. A., in which the prime minister refuses a royal commission, has been made public. In the first letter Sir Robert points out the financial situation of the country in such a way as to preclude the government from entertaining any proposal for larger or further gratuities. He says that the gratuities paid total $130,000,000. In addition the expenditure under the Soldiers' Settlement Act will total at least $180,000,000.

He adds: "The country is face to face with a very serious financial situation which will call for rigid economy and careful retrenchments, and he says in closing: "I hope that the officers and members of your association will realize that my colleagues and I much regret that the financial conditions of the country has obliged us to reach the conclusion I have indicated. You may be assured that it does not result from any lack of appreciation of the notable services which the soldiers of Canada have given in the war, now victoriously concluded."

Federal Members Get After Profiteers

Demand is for firm handling of the profiteers was again the feature of the house debate on the address. Joseph Demers, K. C., of St. John's thought the problem of the cost of living was of more importance to Canadians than ratification of the peace treaty by the Dominion parliament.

From other opposition members came criticisms of the government in regard to the cost of living with the further plea for amnesty in favor of defaulters under the Military Service Act.

WHY DISCRIMINATE.

The refusal of the Dominion government to grant the request of the Dominion executive of the G. W. V. A. to appoint a commission to look into the question of re-establishing soldiers, has caused considerable indignation not only among the veterans but with the general public.

While we do not approve of the commission business but rather look upon it as a means of shifting responsibility, yet since it is the present popular way of investigating almost all important questions brought to the attention of our governments, we see no reason why the veterans should be singled out and slighted in this manner. The veterans were only asking for what every other organization has asked for at different times and has been granted. In their request for a commission they were not asking for any definite settlement of their claims or attempting to force their views onto the government. They were simply asking the government to appoint a committee or commission to meet the veterans' executive when the whole situation could be gone thoroughly into with the object of attempting to arrive at some satisfactory solution of the present circumstances. There is nothing unreasonable in this and we have not the slightest doubt that such a conference would go a long way towards arriving at a better understanding.

The writer has had the privilege of discussing the gratuity question with a member of the Dominion executive and we were greatly impressed with his thorough knowledge of existing conditions and the broadminded view he took of the situation. So far as was concerned the executive has not laid down any hard and fast rule as to what must or must not be done. They had their side of the question but were not slow to see where objections might be taken on some points. However, they were willing to play the give and take game with the hope of ultimately arriving at an agreement that would be satisfactory to all. It was for the purpose of getting both sides of the question and coming to some agreement that a commission was asked for and we see no valid reason why this request was denied them.

It is hoped the government will re-consider their action so that these things may be properly threshed out and settled.

TIME TO SQUEAK.

There appears to be considerable agitation on just now throughout the southern part of Alberta to impress upon the governments, both Dominion and Provincial, the importance of adopting some system of irrigation to make farming in this section more profitable, and to urge upon them the advisability of taking some definite and immediate action.

Smaller communities as well as the larger centres are taking an active interest in the matter and some are already making plans for adopting local irrigation systems in the hope of ultimately getting encouragement and financial assistance from the legislature.

This week a large delegation waited on the provincial government and a careful review of the report of that meeting shows that in this as in almost every other line it appears to be another case of passing the buck along, to the federal government and the latter in turn shifting the responsibility back again to the legislature.

It's about time we got down to business in this connection, so that the people might know just what government is responsible for the different lines of business continually coming up for settlement.

There is no doubt something must be done in southern Alberta and it must be done at once if we are going to be in a position to take advantage of opportunities which are now presenting themselves.

While Premier Stewart could not give any definite encouragement to the delegation for the provincial government embarking on an extensive system of irrigation he strongly advised individual localities going ahead with any schemes they might have in view. By the time these schemes were well under way he thought there might be a possibility of getting the differences between the provincial and federal government settled. In the meantime the legislature would put no stumbling blocks in their way but would rather encourage and assist them. This being the case it might be well if farmers and townspeople in this district started some movement in this direction. There is an old saying that "the wagon that squeaks the most gets the most grease." It's about time we did a little squeaking around here.

KEEP STREETS CLEAN.

"Conservation," a monthly bulletin published by the Conservation Commission, has the following to say under the above heading:

"Drop it anywhere! Nobody cares! Anyway, one little cigarette box or the wrapper off chewing gum, or the envelope from the letter—surely, one would not call dropping them on the sidewalk littering the street. But, if each citizen, young and old, drops a paper on the public streets, the cumulative effect will not be pleasant to behold.

In many of our towns and cities, boxes are placed on the streets for the deposit of waste paper. Where such are not available, however, it is no hardship to carry small paper wrappers until they can be properly disposed of. Cigarette and gum containers are not out of place in the pocket until empty. Keep them there, and, for the sake of cleanly appearance of the streets and of the civic pride which is essential to the general prosperity of the home town, keep scraps of paper off the street."

One day we read that the British are withdrawing all troops from Russia and the next day that Japan is sending in more reinforcements. It's about time Japan did something towards settling the great world turmoil and there is no place she can do more good than near her own home.

We are now told that the future sugar supply is assured and that there is no danger of the price being advanced. In the meantime there is no sugar available at any price. Evidently the government and the Board of Commerce are of the opinion that the general public likes to be bamboozed.

Two more negroes have been lynched in Jacksonville, Florida. The first thing we know the Huns and the Seinn-Finners will be sending delegations to London and Paris asking the governments in those centres for their support in securing home rule for the U. S. negroes.

G. W. V. associations through this country have started a regular bombardment on Ottawa as a result of the government's action in turning down their request for a commission to investigate the gratuity scheme.

Billy Sunday announces that the United States is so dry that a man has to be primed before he can spit. In one day last week there were 83 drunks before a Detroit magistrate. Evidently the priming is not an insuperable obstacle.

John Burns, who was left an annuity of $5,000 by Andrew Carnegie, used to say that no man is worth more than $500 a year. But what John Burns said is of small importance. Money has the floor.

To Develope Planting Trees in S. Alberta

Plans for the consolidation of the movement for an extensive tree planting policy for southern Alberta farms, as a supplement to the movement for irrigation, were discussed at a meeting of the special committee on the project, which was held in Ronalane farm of the Canada Land and Irrigation Company, on the occasion of the annual corn feed there Saturday.

The scheme tenatively outlined involved some policy of the federal government whereby tree plant ng would be established on the dry farms of southern Alberta as a means towards the end of inducing greater precipitation in the dry belts. The plan suggested was that the government should get a fixed tax on each quarter section, the tax to be remitted which the farmer concerned should complete the planting of a certain number of trees each year.

Land Company Will Irragate 50,000 Acres

Water will be ready next spring to irrigate fifty thousand acres of the total of 220,000 irrigable acres of their big project, according to a statement made by an official of the Canada Land and Irrigation Company, during the trip to Ronalane irrigated farm, where the annual corn-feed of the company was held last Saturday.

On a large portion of these 50,000 acres which will be ready for irrigation in the spring, the company expects to settle a considerable number of settlers next season. Already it is stated that arrangements have been made to bring in settlers for a good deal of this land, and these will be ready to farm next summer.

The land which will be first to be irrigated by the company's project, lies for the most part northeast and east of Retlaw, and is particularly adpted for irrigation purposes.

Says Flu Will Return This Fall

An Eastern exchange says: "Someone is always taking the joy out of life, and this time it is Dr. Hastings, the Toronto Medical Health Officer, who issued the cheerful news that the "flu" will in all probability return again this fall. There is no doubt at all but that a lot of people who died of the "flu" last year were literally scared to death. The "flu" got such a start and caused so many deaths before the doctors really recognized it and were able to cope with it, that a panicky condition afflicted the whole country, and the vitality of thousands of people was so reduced by fear that they fell an easy prey to disease. There is a lot of truth in the old story. Fear produces a lowering of the vitality in a very marked degree and it is now well known that if one continually fancies they have a disease they are likely to find this fancy become a fact. The way to deal with the "flu" is not to get panic-stricken, but to be prepared to cope with it. It would seem to us that the very first case that appears in a community should be quarantined, and that drastic steps should be taken to control the outbreak at the very start. Last year, it will be remembered, municipalities were too slow in taking preventative measures and before we realized it the province was overrun with the disease. There is no need to get frightened. Plain living, plenty of sleep, and fresh air, and a determination to fight the disease right from the start with a spirit of fearlessness—and the "flu" will soon lose its terror.

A survey of the coal situation by the Commission of Conservation proves that a coal shortage next winter, and possibly next autumn is almost a certainty.

Commercial Flying From London to Paris

Proof that commercial aviation is making great strides in Europe was strikingly demonstrated recently when one of the flying expresses in the London-Paris passenger air service made a record flight between the two capitals, under adverse weather conditions, in one hour and 50 minutes.

The machine carried four passengers and a full load of parcels, and despite a terrific head wind, the machine reached its destination 20 minutes ahead of schedule. This flight did much to demonstrate the practically perfect safety of air travel, and shows that machines can now venture out over the Channel in any kind of weather.

Three commercial lines are in full operation between the two cities.

Imperial Conference To be Called Soon

A news report from Ottawa says: "As soon as the peace treaty has been ratified and the war is officially over, there will be an Imperial conference called to discuss and to settle the relations of the empire. The date has not yet been settled, but the expectation in government circles is that it will be called early in the year. There are many anomalies in the statutes of the dominions as nations within the British Empire, as has been revealed by the debate on the peace treaty and the League of Nations. Tis is frankly admitted by the cabinet ministers.

Improvement League Has Good Program

At a meeting of the Civic Improvement League held yesterday afternoon it was decided that the league would make an effort to have a skating rink here this winter. For the purpose of seeing what could be done in this direction a committee was appointed to interview other organizations in town and make arrangements for a general meeting of the several organizations to be held next Monday evening.

The League also has in mind the starting of a gymnasium for the use of the school children and other young people.

As a means of securing funds for the carrying out of this program it was decided to hold a tag day on Saturday, Sept. 20th.

Blames Public for High Cost of Living

A prominent Calgary wholesaler is of the opinion that the people are themselves largely responsible for the present high cost of living, in that they are constantly demanding novelties and luxuries. In order to supply this demand it was necessary for the wholesaler and retailer to carry expensive lines of goods, and in order to break even on these they had to charge higher for other things. His suggestion is that we should all get back to the simpler life.

TO CONSIDER THE SOLDIERS GRATUITY.

From a reliable source at Ottawa, it is learned that the government is about to consider three different propositions concerning additional gratuity, as follows. 1. That a lump sum be paid in December to all men who served in France. 2. That all former members of the C. E. F. receive an additional gratuity of $1 for each day's service from enlistment to discharge. 3. That the equivalent to a captain's pay be paid to all ranks according to length of service.

The Review is only $1.50 a year to any part of Canada.

Making Headway in Grand Trunk Case

There is good reason to believe that the negotiations which are in progress for the purchase by the government of the Grand Trunk Railway are making headway and the outlook for an agreement upon terms is brighter. The deadlock which has existed may be broken and an announcement may be possible shortly. The government has not wavered in its offer of a year ago, which up to the present the Grand Trunk directors have absolutely refused. This offer was for $2,500,000 annual rental for the first three years, $2,000,000 annual rental for the next five years and after that date $3,000,000 per year.
